ORDER

The UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, by [REDACTED], United States Attorney for the [REDACTED] has submitted an application pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 2705(b), requesting that the Court issue an Order commanding Brave New Software Project, an electronic communications service provider and/or a remote computing service, not to notify any person (including the subscribers or customers of the account(s) listed in the attached grand jury subpoena) of the existence of the attached subpoena except as provided below.

The Court determines that there is reason to believe that notification of the existence of the attached grand jury subpoena will seriously jeopardize the investigation, including by causing flight from prosecution, causing the destruction of or tampering with evidence, and otherwise seriously jeopardizing the investigation. See 18 U.S.C. § 2705(b).

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED under Title 18, United States Code, Section 2705(b) that Brave New Software Project shall not disclose the existence of the attached grand jury subpoena, or this Order of the Court, to the listed subscriber or to any other person, unless and until: (a) [REDACTED]; or (b) further order of the Court, except that Brave New Software Project may disclose the attached grand jury subpoena to an attorney for Brave New Software Project for the purpose of receiving legal advice. The attached Order does not prevent Brave New Software Project from inquiring whether the nondisclosure provisions of the Order remain in effect.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the application and this Order are sealed until [REDACTED] or otherwise ordered by the Court. The United States may serve this Order on Brave New Software Project.
